Scripture Reading Together: Acts 19:11-20

Opening remarks...

1. We know that the war against Satan has been won (Rev 12:7-9, 20:10)! But there are still battles to be fought against him and the forces of darkness. What do some of those conflicts look like today for Christians? (See 1 Timothy 4:1 [teaching] James 4:1-7 [quarrels] 2 Cor 12:7 [harassment]).
2. Other examples of battles for today from scripture?
3. What is the primary purpose of Jesus driving out demons (Luke 11:20)?
4. Read Acts 19:18-20. How can we pray for God to glorify His name as He did in Ephesus? Would we be ready for the bonfires of repentance that follow His glory revealed?
5. (For breakout groups) Is there anything facilitating sin that the Holy Spirit is leading you to place on the 'fire' as they did in Ephesus?

8:20pm Prayer (close group session) and get into breakout time (guys and gals separate)
