Scripture Reading Together: Romans 10:12-17

Opening remarks...

1. Why is what Paul writes in Romans 10:12 so radical? (See also, Colossians 3:11).
2. What are some modern-day distinctions we place on the Gospel recipients? How do the verses above rebuke these distinctions?
3. Some will say, "what about those who haven't heard?" How do we answer this question in light of Romans 1:18-21?
4. The gospel is the good news of salvation. Is anyone exempt from sharing the good news with others? What should compel us to share it with others?
5. How can we support the work of others who share the good news?
